CLIENT PROFILE

Thank you for your interest in our dogs. No matter your ultimate goal, you will be proud knowing your selection is a direct continuation of the Las Rocosa line; the most winning bloodline in the Australian Shepherd breed. Please understand this profile is our endeavor to extract information that will assist in matching you with your special puppy. We take this responsibility seriously, realizing this is a "life" commitment.

How did you learn of RJM? If client referral, please list that person so that we may properly thank them.

As you know, we limit our litter production and work from a reservation basis. For that reason we ask if you might have alternative preferences to the above. If so, make note of your alternative position, here. Since we have no idea of the gender and color mix, in advance, your second choice may make this process more flexible in our attempt to provide you with your "dream" puppy.

Please return at your earliest convenience, with your $50. reservation deposit.
